

Abel Korzeniowski

Abel Korzeniowski is a multiple award-winning composer whose work in film music consistently pushes the boundaries of the orchestra and the art form. Korzeniowski most recently scored 42 and Film Nation's latest film, The Courier, starring Benedict Cumberbatch and Rachel Brosnahan, which was released theatrically on March 19 by Lionsgate .

Korzeniowski is perhaps best known for his scores to Tom Ford's films, "Nocturnal Animals," starring Amy Adams and Jake Gyllenhaal and "A Single Man," starring Colin Firth and Julianne Moore. Korzeniowski's stirring score for A Single Man quickly put him at the vanguard of an exciting new generation of film composers. The score earned many awards, including a Golden Globe nomination. It also caught the attention of Madonna, who collaborated with him on the film "W.E.," for which he received a second Golden Globe nomination. A solo piano piece from the score, "Evgeni's Waltz," became the basis for a new version of Madonna's hit "Like a Virgin," and was performed during her 2012 MDNA world tour. The multi-dimensional score to Nocturnal Animals has been highly praised for combining classic mid-century scoring techniques with ultra-modern minimalism. In his review of the score, Jonathan Broxton of Movie Music states that Korzeniowski "write[s] music that has depth, compositional intelligence, and a romantic symphonic sound that is not ashamed to enthrall its audience with thematic beauty. [He] is on the cusp of becoming one of film music's next truly great composers."

In 2019 Abel provided the chilling score for New Line Cinema's supernatural horror film and fifth installment of "The Conjuring" series, "The Nun."

Korzeniowski won the BAFTA Award and received three Emmy nominations for his work on the Showtime series "Penny Dreadful." Additionally, Korzeniowski has won three World Soundtrack Awards, including "Discovery of the Year" for A Single Man, as well as the 2013 IFMCA Composer of the Year Award for his work on "Romeo & Juliet" and "Escape From Tomorrow."

Born in Krakow, Poland, Korzeniowski studied classical composition under the world-renowned composer Krzysztof Penderecki. He currently resides in Los Angeles.
